Complaints and appeals procedure

If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, James Calvert Spence College encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. For example - A concern or complaint should be made in person, by telephone or in writing to the head of centre.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- ▶ The schools Complaints Policy should be followed and contains details on how to submit a formal complaint to the school.
- ▶ The Complaints Policy can be found on the school's website (www.jcsc.co.uk)
