

Cornell notes are an excellent way to both record key points and questions that arise as you revise a topic. Put a title at the top, record key words or questions in the left column and make notes of important features to remember in the right. When you have finished exploring your revision stimulus, make a brief summary at the bottom.